

Our commitment to child safety

All Saints' Anglican Parish is committed to child safety.

- We want children to be safe, happy and empowered.
We provide a welcoming, inclusive environment that treats all children with equality and respect regardless of race, cultural, linguistic or social origin, sex, sexuality, sexual identity, religion, disability or other status.
We are committed to the cultural safety of Aboriginal children.
- We support and respect all children, staff and our volunteers. We are all committed to implementing the Victorian Child Safe Standards.
- We are committed to the safety, participation and empowerment of all children involving them in making decisions about activities, policies and processes that concern them wherever possible and appropriate.
We will always seek parent consent if talking to children online, We will always have another adult present.
- We have zero tolerance of child abuse, and all allegations and safety concerns will be treated very seriously and consistently with policies and procedures which are in place.
- We have legal and moral obligations to contact authorities when we are worried about a child's safety, which we follow rigorously.
- All Saints' Anglican Parish is committed to preventing child abuse and Identifying risks early, and removing and reducing these risks.
- All Saints' Anglican Parish has robust human resources and recruitment practices for all of our staff and volunteers.
- All Saints' Anglican Parish is committed to regularly training and educating our staff and volunteers on child abuse risks.
- We have specific policies, procedures and training in place that support our leadership team, staff and volunteers to achieve these commitments.

If you believe a child is at immediate risk of abuse, phone 000.